Re: FEC ID # C00007880

Dear Ms. Kitchen:

Your letter dated October 9, 1998 concerning the July Monthly Report (6/1/98-6/30/98) raised several questions that will be addressed in this letter and the attached amendment. Please note that while reviewing our records, we have discovered a $500 receipt error that is reflected in this amendment. Accordingly, amendments will be filed for the following months.

In response to your inquiry concerning contributions to the Newt Gingrich campaign, attached is a photocopy of the refund check received. Our records indicate: Contributions to the primary election include 3/18/97 $1000 and 11/6/97 $4000; contributions to the general election include 11/6/97 $1533.30 (refunded) 11/19/97 $470.25 (refunded), for a total refund of $2003.55, and 6/23/98 $5000. Accordingly, CULAC has not exceeded the limit concerning the Gingrich campaign.

In response to your inquiry concerning contributions to the Tom Daschle campaign, attached is a photocopy of the refund check and correspondence received. Our records indicate: Contributions to the primary election include 5/23/97 $1000, 11/13/97 $2000, and 3/27/98 $1000; contributions to the general election include 3/27/98 $1000 (refunded), 6/23/98 $2000 and 6/30/98 $3000. Accordingly, CULAC has not exceeded the limit concerning the Daschle campaign.

In response to your inquiry concerning contributions to the Jerry Lewis campaign, attached is an amendment to the July monthly report. The 6/23/98 $1000 contribution originally reported payable to Jerry Lewis has been corrected to reflect the actual payee, John Lewis, US House-Georgia. The original report which disclosed Jerry Lewis was a clerical error. Accordingly,
